The Spiritual Principle of step 12 is Service:

Spirituality requires a connection with a higher power. But the 12-step program isn't one of quiet self-reflection. Instead, it stands on principles that should be shared with addicts in need. As we apply spirituality to our lives, our journey is not complete until we help others do the same.

"CONCEPT TWELVE:

The Conference shall observe the spirit of A.A. tradition, taking care that it never becomes the seat of perilous wealth or power; that sufficient operating funds and reserve be its prudent financial principle; that it place none of its members in a position of unqualified authority over others; that it reach all important decisions by discussion, vote, and whenever possible, substantial unanimity; that its actions never be personally punitive nor an incitement to public controversy; that it never perform acts of government; that, like the Society it serves, it will always remain democratic in thought and action.

SERVICE

A helpful act; contribution to the welfare of others; useful labor that does not produce a tangible commodity

IN THE 12TH STEP

HAVING HAD A SPIRITUAL AWAKENING AS THE RESULT OF THESE STEPS, WE TRIED TO CARRY THIS MESSAGE TO ALCOHOLICS AND TO PRACTICE THESE PRINCIPLES IN ALL OUR AFFAIRS.

TRADITION TWELVE

We of Alcoholics Anonymous believe that the principle of anonymity has an immense spiritual significance. It reminds us that we are to place principles before personalities; that we are actually to practice a genuine humility. This to the end that our great blessings may never spoil us; that we shall forever live in thankful contemplation of Him who presides over us all

DECEMBER 2012 Grapevine Magazine • Holiday Pity Party BY: TERRI S. | CANAL WINCHESTER, OHIO

Just before the holiday season, I had surgery and was on bed rest after unexpected complications. I was in a lot of physical pain and could not move around comfortably. I found myself stuck with my own thoughts. I tallied up my long list of complications and was lamenting the idea that a simple surgery had gone wrong. I was suffering, where other people who had the same surgery never had a problem. I thought I would call my sponsor, knowing that she'd listen to me bitch and moan and then set me straight. But after 23 years sober, I knew that was just a ploy for attention. I'd really just be trying to drag her into my pity party. I knew my sponsor was too savvy for that. She also didn't deserve to have to deal with my whininess. So, as I lay in my sick bed, I was becoming filled with self-pity. I couldn't go out and do my holiday shopping. Besides, I had no money. I just had anger and grand justifications for my state of mind.

Then I looked over and saw the card that my home group sent me, unopened on the nightstand. The Serenity Prayer was on the front. As I opened it, my negative thoughts started to evaporate. There must have been a dozen signatures and get-well-wishes inside. My mindset slowly became transformed from self-pity to gratitude. All these women, with whom I had only one thing in common—alcoholism—were thinking of me, praying for me and wishing me well. Yet I had nothing to give to them in my broke and physically ill state

Meeting Minutes 10/18/25

1. Call to Order

The meeting was called to order at 8:35 am by Kara K. Introductions around the room were made with positions if one was held.

Present: Melissa S, Shelly J, Shannon W, Kim W, Marlene C, Elaine K, Kara K, Christina B, Rosie G, Marlene C, Joy (guest), Courtney Q, Sandy B, Josh (guest)

Call Outs: Julia J., Scott C.

Sandy B read minutes from 9/22/25. Shelly J motioned to accept minutes, Shannon W seconded, AIF.

2. Intergroup Reports

- Chair - Kara K - No report.
- Co-Chair - Shannon W - No report.
- Secretary - Sandy B - No report.
- Treasurer - Shelly J - Shelly reported: that she sent Sandy B updated financial summary from last month the YTD and prior updates for August. September report ending checking account balance: $7,027.15 and ending savings balance: $2,505.17.

September 2025 Financial Summary (details attached). Shelly reported the following donations:

Group Donations:	$ 1,313.00
Individual:	$ 396.00
Zelle Group:	$-
Zelle Individual:	$ 25.00

Donations Total: $ 1,734.00

Shelly paid off the CDTFA. Kim motioned to accept the Treasurer's report, Shannon seconded, AIF. Kim motioned to move $2,000.00 from checking into savings, Shannon seconded, AIF.

Melissa reported Seventh Tradition brought in: $31.00

- Newsletter - Sandy D absent. No report.
- Webmaster - Courtney Q said someone reached out on the website regarding a Tuesday 5:30 on Corwin Road at Our Lady of the Desert and could not locate it. Rosie G volunteered to go and research to see where it is and if it is in fact still occurring.
- GSR - Open. No report.
- Office Manager - Melissa S -

Melissa said that Sandy D dropped off a bunch of directories despite Melissa suggesting she hold off due to being outdated. She also noticed they are cut off on the bottom. John made a new directory and Melissa passed it around for committee members to review.

Discussion was held regarding the transition between Sandy D and John. Shelly made a motion to thank Sandy all her service on the Newsletter and directories and to end her commitment she previously resigned from at the end of October, and to have John take over, Shannon seconded AIF. Shannon and Christina will take the directories Sandy D printed and give out at the HUG and Tumbleweed as to not waste them. Central Office will keep the older directories on the shelf for now. Melissa mentioned that this is our last paid month for Grapevine indicating that the subscription is $79 for two copies a month. Shannon motioned to renew but only get one copy, Courtney Q seconded, AIF.

Office visits: 39

Information calls:.... 45

Call Forwarding:..... 26

12 Step Calls:..... 0

- Associate Member - Kim W stated she researched a printer and the one adequate (double side and legal) for Central Office use is +/- $500. Kim made motion to have Melissa purchase for Central Office, Sandy B seconded, AIF.

3. Old Business

Melissa shared that Rosie G made IGR packets and are available to anyone that is interested or that would like more information. Shelly discussed directories that are being sold at C.O and are outdated. Melissa and John will get with Sandy D to update. Shelly shared that the Bylaws state there needs to be an audit committee appointed by the Chair. Chair is absent and will be updated at next meeting. Shelly shared that per the Bylaws elections are held even and odd years and that this December she will be stepping down, already served 2 years in commitment. Shelly will stay on committee with another position. Kim suggested that it be put in the Newsletter that elections will be held in December for IG commitments. Discussion was made regarding amending the Bylaws and it was shared that amendment is not changing or rewriting the Bylaws, it is merely making small changes like adding sobriety requirement. Amended Bylaws must be submitted to different government entities. Kim suggested that the committee take a copy, review and bring back suggestions to next meeting. At that meeting the committee can motion to amend the items and put for final approval at the following meeting. At which time the Bylaws will be amended and sent to board for signatures. 10/18/25 discussion: Additional discussion was held regarding the Bylaws language regarding term, elections, and sobriety time to make elections every two years for Board positions. The Board positions are: Chair, Co-Chair, Treasurer, Secretary and Member at Large. It was clarified that the Co-Chair automatically moves up to Chair every two years. Kim made a motion to change the voting to all positions every year, Shannon seconded. 6 in favor, 5 opposed. Courtney made a motion to create Co-Treasurer and Co-Secretary, Shannon seconded, AIF.

DECEMBER 2012 Grapevine Magazine • Holiday Pity Party BY: TERRI S. | CANAL WINCHESTER, OHIO

I stared at the ceiling for a while, lost in a jumble of thoughts of gratitude, when my partner came in and brought me lunch. I looked beyond her, at the room she had decorated beautifully, and was glad to have a nice bedroom to be in. I was then joined by my five dogs that love me—sick or well. I pulled up the comforter to fend off a draft and was grateful that I wasn't living on the streets like a former AA member I knew who I rarely keep from my thoughts. Now, because of this experience, when I rise to face a new day, I ask myself, "How will I spend my spiritual dollars today?" As I ate my lunch, I realized that I did have something to give this holiday season, and it wasn't of the financial or material variety. I had something I was selfishly keeping—assets in my spiritual account—spiritual dollars! And since I've always been told that I have to give it away to keep it, I could spend those dollars!

So I called a fellow AA member who had recently gotten a new job and shared her joy with her. Then I called another member who had recently struggled with her program and listened to her growth. I called many people and spent my spiritual dollars any way I could. And, by the time I finished, I had even more than when I started.

 The poster features a light blue background with a faint map of California. At the top left, there are palm tree silhouettes. At the top right, there is a circular logo with a palm tree and the text 'SCAAC'. The main title '74th Southern California AA Convention' is prominently displayed in the upper half. Below it, 'Planning Meetings' is written in a dark blue box. A large, flowing script text says 'Come Join Us and Be of Service!'. A list of dates for planning meetings follows, with the year '2026' repeated. The dates range from February to September. A 'WALK THROUGH' event is scheduled for July 12th at The Westin. The main convention dates are October 16-18, 2026, also at The Westin. A 'Wrap Up Meeting' is scheduled for November 15, 2026. The bottom section contains contact information: 'For more info: info@aasocal.com' and 'visit us at: www.aasocal.com'. The final line of the poster provides the address: 'at The 502 Club, 510 S. 2nd Ave #10, Covina, CA 91723'.

Step Work BY: LOUIS B. | ALBUQUERQUE, N.M.

With speaker tapes, laughter, wrong turns and sore feet, he's learning to enjoy life, putting one foot in front of the other

I was on my fourth trip to the Grand Canyon in my fifth year of recovery. My normie girlfriend and I started out from Albuquerque at 10:30 a.m. We arrived at the canyon by evening. Our travel time totaled 11 hours and 500 miles of open road, AA speaker tapes, laughs, food, wrong turns and beautiful country.

We settled into our room for dinner and a night's rest, to be followed by an epic hike in the morning. Our plan was to hike the Kaibab trail seven miles down to the bottom of the canyon to Phantom Ranch. There we would stay overnight, followed by a long, 10-mile hike out on Wednesday.

I was told early on that recovery was about living life: "If you ain't living, you ain't sober," people told me. I heard similar sayings, like, "Go live your life," and "If you're not knocking the cover off the ball of life, you might as well go get drunk." These were just a few not-so-subtle suggestions that were given to me. That all sounded like good advice, so I took it.

My journey into the world of being sober has brought a host of G.O.D. acronyms to my attention. There's Good Orderly Direction, Group Of Drunks, Gift Of Desperation (my sponsor's favorite) and, on this day hiking the Grand Canyon, the Great OutDoors (my favorite). The outdoors keeps me in the moment, keeps me in the positive, helps me gain perspective. Hikes like this are done one step at a time, just like we do it in AA.

Morning came, and off we went. A four-mile-long bus ride from our room left us at the Kaibab trailhead. Just a few steps in and the beauty of the canyon revealed itself. Never old, always beautiful. The majesty of this place reminds me that God's in charge. Seven miles of a well-carved trail, turn after turn, showed one postcard scene after another. I thanked "The Boss," my Higher Power, for the good work that he does. My trusty companion and I prayed throughout the trip for fun and safety. And we got it. Thanks, Boss.

The end of our first day brought us to the bottom of the canyon. We rested, showered and relaxed. A few hours of down time left me time to read some AA literature. I read "Bill's Story," "The Doctor's Opinion" and "More about Alcoholism." I was amazed at how much they talked about God in the early days. I'm familiar with the Big Book, but it hits me differently every time. I thought, This is recovery, alive and well at the bottom of the Grand Canyon!

Later we had a steak dinner and did some "sign-making," in which we depicted our day's adventures on a piece of drawing paper with lots of magic markers. We saved them. I've learned to fill up my time now with positive things like this, as most of my time, especially after a long hike, used to be spent drinking. But not this day. No craving, no desire—the Boss was at work.

Wednesday morning we got up early at 6 o'clock for breakfast and headed for the hike of 10 miles and 5,000 vertical feet up to the South Rim via the Bright Angel Trail. It was lots of pictures and lots of "step work" to the top. The weather threatened to snow, but I've learned to be prepared. I once heard in a meeting that somehow things always work out. I remembered that as I pondered how a snowstorm would impact our hike. I did what was in front of me and left the results up to God. I read that in the back of the Big Book. The weather cooperated and things worked out—just like I've learned in AA.

My girlfriend's fitness counter registered 20,000 steps from beginning to end of the hike. Thank goodness Bill W. kept his spiritual journey to a total of 12 Steps! Twenty thousand Steps would have been a bit much for my sponsor and me to handle.

We finally arrived at the end of our hike, after more than seven hours from bottom to top. We were both tired and grateful that we'd made it safely to the top.

I never take great experiences like these incredible hikes for granted. It's such a gift to be able to do this. Although I do it with my own two feet, I'm well aware that everyone I've ever met in AA has had something to do with me being here. I've never done it alone and I hope I never try.
